PROFESSIONAL EMPLOYMENT

Reference Librarian / Professor (2004)

Pius XII Memorial Library, Saint Louis University, July 1979-

Current Responsibilities: Provide general reference assistance in all subject areas and U.S. government documents. Serve as liaison librarian for the Departments of Communication Sciences and Disorders, Psychology, Research Methodology, and Sociology & Criminal Justice, and the Women's Studies Program. Liaison duties include the assessment, development, and maintenance of the reference and other library collections, as well as participation in all aspects of individualized and course-related library instruction and orientation. Develop instructional materials, bibliographic resource guides, database guides, Web pages, online tutorials, and promotional displays. Audit courses in liaison areas annually. Provide service at levels of department, library, university, community, and profession.

Coordinator of Library Instruction (1988-1994): In addition to regular duties, coordinated activities, facilitated professional development, and participated in the evaluation of seven to thirteen reference librarians who provided instruction. Initiated departmental planning for library instruction, prepared proposal for electronic classroom, and led initiatives to promote library instruction to the University community.

Continuations/Documents Assistant

Freund Law Library, Washington University in St. Louis, September 1978-June 1979

Assisted with the organization of a federal depository of government publications. Checked in U.S. government documents, maintained loose-leaf services, prepared bindery shipments, and supervised student employees.
